Rehman Khan

Presenting to you, Mr. Rehman Khan, a man of myriad talents possessing an unmatched zeal for making people see the brighter side of life. Being an art enthusiast, he shines through his different roles as an acclaimed theatre artist, writer, stand up comedian and actor par excellence. Having worked in plenty of the highest rated television shows across all prominent channels in India, he continues to add great value to the industry with each performance.

He has been associated with, and has contributed relentlessly to, the NGO, Salaam Bombay, which has waged a war against guthka tobacco, to raise awareness of the ill effects of consuming tobacco among school going students. The campaign, called "Theatre Against Tobacco", talked about tobacco's association with cancer and other diseases, as well as its adverse lifestyle effects. The team has touched innumerable lives through the process.

All for a laugh

Popular TV actor and stand-up comedian Rehman (right) was spotted at a Dandiya pandal at Powai recently. But, he he wasn't any other guest — his friends and the organisers had wanted him to be part of the celebrations.

Rehman agreed to be part of the function. He even played garba and dandiya at the behest of the organisers, and also cracked a few jokes and gave an impromptu performance.
